Consider how Christmas and New Year's Day affect you. It's not the end of the year — it's about the beginning of the next. So it's time to take stock of which ways you enjoy the time you have to spend together. Take a moment to think about when these events are going to impact you and decide how your relationship with life will change the next time you are faced with them. (Or, better yet, go ahead, enjoy yourself, without trying to think the new year ahead, too!).. But don't be alarmed. It won't be anything too exciting. There's something exciting to look forward to.
